Madrid, June 11. N. S.

THE King of Spain is perfectly recovered of his late Indisposition, and is expected here to morrow with the whole Court from Toledo. We have Advice from Oran, That the Moors have already pitched 800 Tents near that place, and are making all other Preparations for a Siege, upon which our Court has Renewed the Orders for supplying that Garison with what is necessary for their Defence with all the diligence that may be. We have received Advice by an Express from Cadiz, That 9 sail of the Flota are arrived there from the West Indies, and 4 more hourly expected, which if they all come in safe, will bring home above 30 Millions of Pieces of Eight that are Registred.

Cadiz, June 4. This day arrived here 4 Galeons and 5 other Ships of the Flota from the West Indies, among which are the Capitana or Admiral, and the Rear-Admiral. The Vice-Admiral and 3 more are not yet come in; being in all 14 when they sailed from the Havana on the 13th of March, but a few days after, the Nazareen having sprung a Leak, foundred at Sea, but the Men, with the Plate, and other Effects were saved on board the other Ships; who meeting with contrary Winds, 'twas the 22th of April before they got sight of the Tercera's, and the 30th of May before they Doubled the Cape of St. Vincent.

Leghorne, June 7. We have Advice, That the French Gallies and Men of War that lay at the Isles of Hieres, are come to Villa Franca. On the 7th arrived here an English Ship, called the Britannia, from Lisbon and Genoua. We hear from Tunis, That 4 Men of War belonging to that Government, viz. one of 24 Guns, another of 36, and two of 50 Guns each, were ready to sail for the Levant in order to joyn the Ottoman Fleet.

Warsaw, June 30. The King of Poland having left Joansberg on the 7th instant, came the 9th to Pultepol, the Residence of the Bishop of Plosko, where he was entertained that Evening, and on the eleventh he returned to this place. Yesterday he gave Audience to the Popes two Nuncio's, the Emperor's Envoy, and the Resident of Venice, and afterwards the Cardinal Primate was in private with him in his Closet above two hours. The Ministers of this Court are now endeavouring to adjust the Difference between the Primate and the Bishop of Cujavia, to prevent the Disturbance it may occasion in the next Diet, the Primate seeming resolved to take that opportunity to Demand Satisfaction for the Injury offered his Character and Dignity, by the Bishop's Crowning the present King, a Prerogative which he pretends to belong only to the See of Gnesna. The King intends towards the latter end of this month to be going to the Army, and has renewed his Orders to have all things in a readiness against that time for opening the Campagne. He designs, besides the Forces of Poland and Lithuania, to have above 20000 Germans in his Service this Summer, and has appointed the Duke of Wirtemberg to Command them in Chief. It is not yet known whether the King will Besiege Caminiec, or whether he will not rather march into the Enemies Country, and endeavour to possess himself of the Passes and strong Holds the Tartars are Masters of on the Nieister, and in the Parts thereabouts, and thereby hinder their sending for the future any Succours to Caminiec, and their making Incursions into the Frontier Provinces of this Kingdom. The Affairs of Lithuania do still employ a great part of the King's Care, the Disorders of that Province continuing full as great as ever; The two differing Parties have frequent Skirmishes, in which the Advantage is sometimes on one side and sometimes on the other. And the Tribunal at Wilda, (which remains firm in the Sieur Oginsky's Interests) in Revenge of the last Threats made against that Cky by Prince Sapieha, have by a Decree declared him and the Great Treasurer of Lithuania, Enemies of their Country, and consequently that they have forfeited their Honour and Estates: So the King, seeing all the Means he has hitherto employed for Reconciling these two Factions, ineffectual, has sent his Command to the Chief of them to repair to Court, to give an Account of their Proceedings; and if they do not comply with these Orders, more vigorous Methods will be made use of.

Cuningsberg, June 17. Mr. Stepney, Envoy Extraordinary from His Majesty of Great Britain, having had his Audience of Leave of the King of Poland, on the 31th of the last month at Warsaw, and arrived here the 8th instant, having been received at that Court with great Civility and Kindness, as well by the King as by the Senators, and the great Officers of the Crown. The same day came hither Monsieur Desalleurs, Envoy from France, who had his first Audience of the Elector of Brandenburg on the 11th instant. Monsieur d'Adhfelt is arrived here from Denmark, being to Reside at this Court on the part of that Crown. His Electoral Highness intends to return to Berlin in the beginning of July, and has given Orders to his Servants to set out for that place about a fortnight hence.

Vienna, June 14. Their Imperial Majesty's came last Thursday from Luxembourg to their Palace of Favorita, where they intend to pass the remaining part of the Summer. The Prince of Lorraine, Bishop of Osnabrug and Olmutz, is gone to take possession of those Bishopricks. The Envoy of Portugal having had his Audiences of Leave, has left this place, and set out this morning for Holland. The Emperor's Ministers have had several Conferences about the Proposals of Peace made by the Turks, and it is believed, the Emperor will shortly name his Plenipotentiaries for the Treaty, which probably will be at some place in Hungary. Divers Seamen are expected from Hambourg to serve on Board our Fleet on the Danube, and as soon as they arrive, the
